

After Katrina

Firefly Friday Night

Protest March

“I call myself a recycled painter. During my thirties I was seriously working as a painter, then abandoned artistic career aspirations in favor of a regular paycheck. After my retirement, the pull of making pictures gradually drew me back into painting.

Betsy's Pond Summer 2007

“It’s what I do now when I can escape the obligations of patriarchy. Through pictures I am reporting and sharing,

Do you see what I see?”

WPA Member
Marcia
MacMullan